10th - 11th July the International Policy Forum "Smart and Fair.

Recognizing Women's Role in Our Economic Future" was held in London. The event was organised by Chatham House, with the aim of evaluating progress thus far in the W20, as well as making contributions for the next G20 meeting set to take place in Argentina at the G20 in 2018.

Argentina was represented at a panel by Gala Díaz Langou from the CIPPEC (Centre for the Implementation of Public Policy for Equality and Growth). Also participating in the event were Ambassador Beatriz Nofal, advisor of the Argentine Sherpa to the G20, Ambassador Carlos Sersale di Cerisano and officials from the Embassy.
