

Argentine Embassy London

Seminar on International Child Abduction and Family Law

30 November 2011

Argentine Ambassador's Residence
49 Belgrave Square, London SW1X 8QZ

Families move between different countries for reasons of employment, migration, marriage or indeed when their relationship breaks down. Family law matters involving two countries are complicated – they are more complicated where there are children involved. Where problems arise following a relationship breakdown or there are court proceedings the first port of call for a foreign national will be their Embassy consular services for advice and assistance.

Consular and Embassy staff require an understanding of the basic principles of law in respect of the children and families they seek to assist.

The aim of the evening is to provide much needed practical advice. You will have the opportunity to discuss the issues with legal experts and your colleagues from other missions.

Written materials will be provided.

Organised by: Dawson Cornwell the family law firm
