

Argentine Embassy London

8 November 2011

Venue: Argentine Ambassador's Residence
49 Belgrave Square, London SW1X 8QZ

Seminar on:

- 1.Litigation in Argentina. Mediation and Arbitration systems as a pre action process. Are they effective enough to avoid going to court?
- 2.Foreign Companies and Individuals taking proceedings through the Argentine Courts.

Organised by:

The Society of British and Argentine Lawyers

SOBAL

SOCIETY OF BRITISH ARGENTINE LAWYERS

Programme

18:00 Registration and coffee – Networking

18:30 Speakers:

. Diego Horton, *Senior partner with Pérez Maraviglia & Horton, Abogados – Buenos Aires, Argentina.

International work comprises representing foreign clients in Argentina, as well as foreigners with interests in the country.

major civil and commercial matters throughout the country, and acting for foreign investors. This led him to represent various companies and individuals before the Argentine courts, as well as under the Mediation, Arbitration and Alternative Dispute Resolution procedures that are all part of the legal system in Argentina today.

. Peter Taylor, *Director & Solicitor with Taylor Fordyce Solicitors – Winchester, UK.

Peter Taylor is the current chairman of SOBAL and has been actively involved in commercial and private client work in Argentina, in respect of which he works with a number of legal firms in Buenos Aires. He is fluent in Spanish having been born and brought up in Central America.

He is also an active participant in the IBA conferences and as Chairman of SOBAL is keen to promote and develop the activities of SOBAL and persuade as many lawyers from the UK and Argentina to join SOBAL as either full or associate members.

19:30 Questions and Discussions

19:45 Reception

Registration is free of charge. Seats are limited.

Please register at:

ambassadoroffice@argentine-embassy-uk.org

or call 020 7318 1320 /1321